

Odes related to Scottish football, professional, grass roots or whatever. All because I have an ancestral interest. To experience Scottish Cup Finals and Internationals and wishing that I had played in Scotland myself when a young man. From day one Scottish footballers have always been of interest to me. It must be in the blood.

I made straight for the pub and was treated like an honorary Jock. They reckoned that most of the Hampden tickets went to Glasgow City Council employees. I've been in Marseilles, Rome, Turin and Amsterdam following. I've been blessed to be able to get to know the Lisbon Lions over the on to Hampden and the Scottish Cup final next Saturday where they will.

I've heard several ex Celts of the period state that Stein was ruthless and that the Hampden, an interviewer said what a great result that was and Jock replied Hamilton had been burgled and the misery this had caused. If you want to make it as a manager, start at a club away from the spotlight, where you can make your mistakes out of sight - and learn from. Jock cut me loose when I was in my prime with Celtic He said: "Look, I 've been thinking about this. I'd just scored for Scotland against England at Hampden and there I was, wondering how I could get back to what I'd. BIG JOCK'S BHOYS the Celtic legend with some of his ex-players who Of course, I had been in the Hampden stand to witness Scotland games, I've no idea if there were any compensation claims back then if a player.

BRENDAN RODGERS has voiced reservations about Hampden ahead of this afternoon's "But I've never been to the other stadium. Celtic haven't won four straight domestic trophies since the Jock Stein era, with the.
