

KNIGHTS IN SHINING ARMOR is a story about a young infantry lieutenant and his experiences as a platoon leader while serving in the Korean War. It is through these experiences that we see his emergence from a naive, innocent boy into a man and into a hero. He confronts a series of bizarre situations in combat that demand instant life-or-death decisions. In addition, several unusual events occur in his love life that require an inner strength in order to maintain his sanity and to assume the responsibilities of leadership thrust upon him. The reader can expect to encounter mystery, intrigue, adventure, humor, and incredible romantic episodes within the pages of this unique book embellished with snappy dialogue and written in an exciting, descriptive style.
